

VIRGIN MONEY LONDON MARATHON
Race date: TBC

Thank you for your interest in supporting our charity by running with the Animal Health Trust team in the 2018 London Marathon.

Why run for us? You'll be raising funds to help animals. The Animal Health Trust exists to fight disease and injury in animals. Thanks to our pioneering work improving diagnosis, treatment and prevention; horses, dogs and cats are living healthier, happier lives – in the UK and across the world. We take on the most difficult cases and offer the most specialist treatment to ensure that any animal coming through our doors is given a chance to continue a happy and loving life with its family.
